Sheriff David Marshak wishes to announce the following:

On November 6, 2017 at approximately 0030 hours, Deputies with the Jefferson County Sheriff's Office responded to:

Quik Trip

1600 Block of Gravois in High Ridge, Mo.

in reference to a report of a robbery. According to statements made by the clerk, a:

Male

32 years of age

Imperial, Mo.

entered the business and requested the clerk to cash a personal check. The clerk told the male she was unable to do so. After his request was denied, the suspect demanded the clerk to give him money from the cash register. The clerk did not relinquish any currency to the male. The suspect then told the clerk he was going to retrieve his canine from his vehicle and made statements implying the dog would attack. The male walked to his vehicle on the parking lot of the business and released a canine into the store. The clerk alerted law enforcement by activating an alarm and dialing 911. The male then fled the Quik Trip in his vehicle, leaving the canine in the store. The male was arrested in Kirkwood, Mo. on November 6 and subsequently transferred to the Jefferson County Jail. The canine was released to the custody of Jefferson County Animal Control.

The male was released pending the application of warrants for:

Stealing

Fraudulent Use of a Credit Device
